NOT INTERESTED IN PARTY SQUABBLES, HUN ADMIRAL SAYS

Petrograd, Sunday, Dec. 30-An inerview with Admiral Keyserlingk, a member of the German delegation which arrived in Petrograd last week s published in the Den. In reply to a statement by his interviewer that gatherings of children, during the fol- the Bolsheviki constituted only one party in Russia and were not recog nized by a majority of the people, the admiral said:

"That is a matter of your interna politics, which in no wise concerns us. However, Germany would not rish to conclude peace with only one party. That is why we insisted that the delegates from Ukraine be admitted to the peace negotiations in

"We have not declined to hear ren resentatives of other nationalities in Russia, even of other parties. We understand a durable peace is attainable only when factional passions in Russia have been allayed. Therefore,

The admiral denied the question of peace was bound up with the consti tutional assembly.
